

Purposes of QAE

- For the university and each academic, administrative, support and service unit, ensuring:
 - i. Conformance to specifications
 - ii. Effectiveness
 - iii. Efficacy
 - iv. Efficiency
 - v. Excellence
 - vi. Fitness for purpose
 - vii. Fitness of purpose
 - viii. Impact
 - ix. Meeting intended outcomes
 - x. Meeting internal and external stakeholders'/consumers'/clients' needs
 - xi. Meeting objectives
 - xii. Reliability and consistency
 - xiii. Transformation
 - xiv. Value-added
- Accountability;
- Accreditation;
- Catalyze university development;
- Comparing universities;
- Control of Faculties/curricula/assessment/offices/units.
- Ensuring consistently high standards;
- External recognition;
- Foster collegiality and networking within the university;
- Improvement and continuous development;
- Monitoring, review and of the university;
- Nurture best practice to promote all-round development;
- Promote excellence, creativity and diversity;
- Provision of information on how well university, academic units, administration units, offices, service and support units, and program policies, plans and procedures are working: effectiveness; efficiency; efficacy; impact;
- Provision of information to all stakeholders;
- Public awareness and consumer choice (e.g. for student recruitment);
- Value for money/return on investment.